

“As SSGA members, now we can interface directly with government agencies. We couldn’t do that before. If I had a problem with shipping, I didn’t have a solution for it, but because of SSGA now I do. I feel like I can get more of a quicker solution to help not only myself and my company, but other people and SSGA members who are doing the same thing.”

— SSGA member, Rob Prather
Chief strategic ambassador, Global Processing

“As a grower of identity-preserved crops, it’s important to have a business association that represents my industry. Even at the producer level, SSGA has a strong understanding of grower challenges and needs. As a full member, I get the information I need to make decisions on my farm, and I’m kept up-to-date on transportation issues. This allows me to get my valuable crop to market in the most efficient, high-quality way.”
